

AN EVENING FOR THE BOSS

Bruce Springsteen Night at FirstEnergy Park Friday, July 25th

The Garden State Parkway. Pork Roll, Egg & Cheese Sandwiches. Beaches and Boardwalks.

These are just a few of the things for which our wonderful state is famous for. Another one is Bruce Springsteen. For more than seven years and five hundred games, you've heard The Boss' songs played over the speakers at FirstEnergy Park. It might be in between innings, during a pitching change or even every night the gates open like this season. Well, we're finally ready to devote an entire night to New Jersey's own, Bruce Springsteen.

The Music

From the moment the gates open until the very last tune of the night, only Bruce Springsteen songs will be played over the PA system. The night will proceed chronologically, beginning with hits from Greeting from Asbury Park, N.J and continuing on through songs from Magic.

The Concerts

The Coors Light WRAT Trap in centerfield will unofficially become the Bruce Springsteen Arts Center, as concert footage will be shown on two flat screen televisions and in surround surround all night. Want to see Jungleland from Madison Square Garden? How about Born to Run from London in '75? Then the centerfield tiki bar is your place to be.

The Uniforms

With special permission from Minor League Baseball, the team will be sporting custom "BruceClaws" jerseys in honor of the Boss.

Designed after the Greetings from Asbury Park, N.J.

album cover, these one-of-a-kind

game-worn jerseys will be available for purchase in a silent auction on the concourse beginning

when the gates open and ending with the final pitch of the game. All proceeds will go directly to the Food Bank of Monmouth and Ocean County, one of Bruce's favorite charities.

The Baseball

Courtesy of the ALS Association, the BlueClaws have obtained a baseball signed by the man of the hour himself, Bruce Springsteen. Throughout the game fans will have the opportunity to win this unique souvenir by purchasing $20 raffle tickets. There is no limit to how many raffle tickets people can buy and 100% of the money raised will go to the ALS Association. The lucky winner will be announced during the 7th inning and need not be present.
